Explora en Atacama, Patagonia and Easter Island—vital experiences, and journeys for the soul

Explora was founded to encourage a new way of travel in the remote regions of the Southern tip of South America. South America is one of the least-known areas in the world, as well as one of the least explored. It is a region open to our imagination, with much to discover: volcanoes, salt flats, 1000-year-old forests, lakes and rivers. At the same time South America offers a journey through history.

Explora offers travel programs to Torres del Paine National Park in Patagonia, at the Hotel Salto Chico —Explora en Patagonia—; to the altiplano and Atacama Desert, at the Hotel de Larache —Explora en Atacama—; to Easter Island, at Posada de Mike Rapu; and TRAVESIAS Explora, which will give travelers the opportunity to explore other regions in South America that compliment our traditional programs: the Chilean and Bolivian altiplanos and The Salar de Uyuni; crossing the Andes mountain range; and travesía in Chilean and Argentinean Patagonia.

Explora was founded to encourage a new way of travel in the remote regions of the southern tip of South America. Out of our love for nature and liberty, our philosophy of travel was born from the desire to explore the natural and cultural environments of these remote locations. In these privileged natural territories, Explora offers travel programs to Torres del Paine National Park in Patagonia at the Hotel Salto Chico, to Atacama at Hotel de Larache, and Rapa Nui, Easter Island. You'll enjoy a wide variety of carefully developed explorations at all levels of abilities to explore the nature and history of the region.
