

Experience the glamour-infused lifestyle of South Beach and enjoy special savings at the Gansevoort South Hotel Spa

The Gansevoort South Hotel is infusing glamour into the north end of Collins Avenue, widely considered to be the epicenter of South Beach. The landmark site has been transformed into a lifestyle destination complete with a 334-room hotel and 259 condominiums, DavidBartonGym + Spa, a full city block of luxury boutiques, an intimate lounge by The Opium Group, restaurants by Philippe Chow and The ONE Group's STK, and a seamless shark tank with 27 types of fish and sharks that spans 50 feet of the dramatic lobby.

Like the New York hotel, the signature feature of Gansevoort South is a 26,000-square-foot rooftop retreat, arguably the largest rooftop playground in the world. A tropical oasis dotted with coco palm trees and whimsical cabanas, the rooftop features a 110-foot elevated swimming pool and Plunge bar and lounge. Soaring eighteen floors high, it offers uninterrupted views of the Atlantic Ocean, Biscayne Bay and downtown Miami.

Our oversized hotel rooms are accented with splashes of hot pink against charcoal gray suede walls, providing an understated backdrop for custom-designed tables, sofas, lounge chairs, oversized mirrors and polished wood headboards. Guests enjoy large balconies with dramatic ocean, bay or city views and pin-up style photographs add a playful air to the spacious, light-filled rooms.
