

Stay at this Brazilian paradise and receive a 10% savings and other special offers

Located on Brazil's Northeast coast on the beach of Itacarzinho, Bahia, the Txai Resort is a private paradise of white sand beaches, dense forests and natural beauty. Bungalows built on stilts are widely spaced amid a coconut grove, ensuring maximum privacy. The resort's onsite restaurant is built atop a natural rise, offering a stunning view of the sea below. It serves three full meals daily, featuring indigenous cuisine as well as European fare. A magnificent common room welcomes guests who wish to come to read, socialize, or play games. Internet service and television room is available as well. Activities include swimming in the resort's five blue tiled pools, expeditions, hiking, water sports (canoeing, rafting, surfing), tennis, as well as a full menu of spa services. Guests can pamper the mind, body and soul at the Shamash Healing Space, which offers massages and other spa treatments.
